Frantz Essay Nomination Form

Nomination for the Joe B. Frantz Prize for Best Graduate and Undergraduate History Paper

This award recognizes the best history research paper in each of two categories: upper-division undergraduate students and graduate students. It is awarded annually at the end of the Spring semester. The monetary prize is $200 for the best undergraduate paper and $300 for the best graduate paper.

All applicants interested in being considered for this prize must complete this form and submit it, along with three clean copies of the paper, to the current Joe B. Frantz Professor of History by the last official day of classes for the Spring academic term. The application must be typed, provide all of the information requested, and bear the signatures of the student nominee and the instructor in whose class the paper was completed. The author's name should appear only on the nomination form and not on any of the submitted copies of the paper. Late submissions or those that do not conform to the specific criteria of nomination process will not be accepted or evaluated under any circumstances. In the event that no submission meets the criteria for scholarly excellence established by the history faculty, no award will be given.

1. Name of Nominee
2. Contact Information, including correct and complete email address, phone number (with area code), and mailing address
3. Which competition are you eligible and applying for? (Graduate or Undergraduate, please select one)
4. The title of your paper
5. The course name, academic term, and name of the instructor in which this paper was completed
6. Provide a brief description of your paper (100-word maximum)
7. Please include the following statement (verbatim) on your nomination: "By signing below I declare that this paper is my own original work and free of plagiarism." Include the:

Signature of nominee:_________________________________________________

Signature of instructor:______________________________________________